

CONDITIONAL USE PERMIT INFORMATION

WHAT IS A CONDITIONAL USE?

A conditional use is a land use requiring special review to ensure its compatibility with existing uses in the same zone. There are two types of uses on a parcel of land; permitted uses which are appropriate uses to the location and are allowed outright on a parcel, and conditional uses which can be appropriate in the right locations but must be reviewed and approved with conditions of operation by a quasi-judicial Hearings Examiner. The Hearings Examiner will review the location and design of certain proposed uses, the configuration of improvements, and the potential impacts on the surrounding area to ensure that development within each zoning district protects the integrity of that district.

THE PROCESS

A Conditional Use Permit normally involves having a pre-application meeting with County Planning Staff to discuss the application, answer questions, and resolve any issues at the front end of the process. Next, a completed Conditional Use Permit application is submitted to the Planning Division, which will be sent out for review to local and State agencies, as well as neighboring property owners within 300 feet of the subject property.

A notice of application will then be published in the local newspaper and a public hearing will be conducted at which time the application will be heard by the Benton County Hearings Examiner and the public will have the opportunity to comment on the proposal. The Hearings Examiner will review all the information submitted during the review process and shall either approve, approve with conditions, or deny the conditional use permit.

CRITERIA FOR APPROVAL

A conditional use permit shall be granted only if it can be concluded that, as conditioned, the proposed use:

1. Is compatible with other uses in the surrounding area or is no more incompatible than any other outright permitted uses in the applicable zoning district;
2. Will not materially endanger the health, safety, and welfare of the surrounding community to an extent greater than that associated with any other permitted uses in the applicable zoning district;
3. Would not cause the pedestrian and vehicular traffic associated with the use to conflict with existing and anticipated traffic in the neighborhood to an extent greater than that associated with any other permitted uses in the applicable zoning district;
4. Will be supported by adequate service facilities and would not adversely affect public services to the surrounding area; and
5. Would not hinder or discourage the development of permitted uses on neighboring properties in the applicable zoning district as a result of the location, size or height of the buildings, structures, walls, or required fences or screening vegetation to a greater extent than other permitted uses in the applicable zoning district.

APPEALS

There are no administrative appeals on applications for Conditional Use Permits. Judicial appeals of the Hearings Examiner's decision may be made in accordance with state law.

EXPIRATION

The Conditional Use Permit will be valid as long as the conditions set forth by the Hearings Examiner are met.
