- B. Update of Address. Each party must update their mailing address with the County Clerk’s office immediately upon a change of address. The mailing address provided does not have to be the same as the residence of a party, but it must be an address where the party agrees to receive mail. The change of address must also be mailed or otherwise provided to the opposing party within seventy-two (72) hours of the address change. This requirement is in addition to, not a substitute for, any other Rule or Law regarding notice, including the Relocation Act.
- C. Issues Regarding Venue/Jurisdiction. If venue or jurisdiction is an issue, either party may apply to the Court for an expedited hearing on this issue, which shall be heard promptly prior to a hearing on the merits.
- D. Hearing Requirement. If a Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act (UCCJEA) hearing is required, both parties shall complete and file a UCCJEA information form. The parties must also provide a copy to the Domestic Judicial Assistant in Court Administration. See UCCJEA form on the Court’s Website.

4. Mandatory Appearances. Mandatory court appearances are noted in bold on the Scheduling Order. Failure to appear at a mandatory court appearance could result in an order of default being entered against the non-appearing party, sanctions, terms or other relief as justice may require.
5. Disclosures. By the deadline set forth in the Domestic Case Scheduling Order, the parties shall file and serve the opposing party with a copy the following documents:
 - a. Proposed Child Support Worksheets (if applicable);

7. Adequate Cause Found/Modifications. The Domestic Judicial Assistant shall issue a Domestic Case Scheduling Order and shall provide copies to the parties, upon establishment of adequate cause for Motions/Petitions to Modify/Change a Parenting Plan/Residential Schedule.

The Court may waive a party's attendance at such seminar or extend the time required for good cause. Parents are encouraged to complete the parenting seminar as soon as possible following filing of an action which involves children. The Court will not enter final orders regarding children if both parents have not completed the mandatory parenting seminar except for good cause.
2. Cost. Each party attending a seminar shall pay a fee charged by the approved provider, which may be waived for indigent parties.

1. Timelines for Filing Motions: The timelines for filing a motion, response, and strict reply are noted above in Local Civil Rule 7. The Court will not consider any issues raised for the first time in the strict reply document. The Court, either on its own or after an objection, will determine whether an averment, argument, or evidence is a new issue for purposes of this Rule, thereby striking it from consideration.
2. Confirmation/Strike Rules: Motions must be confirmed by the moving party no later than 3:00 p.m. five (5) calendar days prior to the hearing or the motion will be stricken or continued at the Court’s discretion. “Confirmed” means completing and filing on eMotion a “Read First” LMR 2. If the moving party fails to appear after confirming the motion, the Court may strike the motion, deny the motion, impose terms, and/or order any other relief the court deems appropriate. If the responding party fails to appear, the Court may grant the relief requested.
3. Which docket do I set my hearing on? See the Court’s Website for information on which domestic docket to set a hearing in Benton or Franklin County under the “Schedules and Calendars” then “Benton & Franklin Dockets – Weekly Schedule” tab from the homepage.

 - b. Each side on the Under 10 docket is allowed three (3) minutes for argument.
 - c. Each side on the Over 20 docket is allowed fifteen (15) minutes for argument.
 - d. Court shall notify litigants in advance of a ruling without oral argument by indicating it on the docket if time permits, otherwise, the Court shall notify the litigants at roll call at the start of the docket.
5. Page Limits: Absent prior authorization from the Court, the moving party (litigant filing the motion requesting relief) shall be limited to twenty-five (25) pages and the responding party shall be limited to twenty (20) pages, per motion. Failure to comply with this Rule is sanctionable; the Court, in its discretion, may impose terms, strike all pleadings of that noncomplying party, or any other relief the Court deems appropriate. 6. Pleading format: All declarations and affidavits must comply with GR 14 (format for pleadings and other papers), be legibly hand-printed or typed in at least twelve (12) point type.

 - b. Present Danger to Child. Immediate (or emergency) orders in family law matters that request changing the custody of minor child(ren) shall not be entered unless the court finds a clear showing of present danger to a child(ren) and/or that the custodial person will, unless custody change is immediate, remove the said child(ren) from the State of Washington.
 - c. Orders to Show Cause Notice. No notice is required to the other party when simply obtaining an Order to Show Cause to set a motion hearing, and there are no actual orders being taken in the Order beyond setting the motion hearing itself. This does not affect service rules.
 - d. Reopening motions: No party shall remake the same motion to a different Judge or Commissioner without identifying the motion previously made, including when it was made, to which judicial officer it was made, what the order or decision was, and any new facts or other circumstances that would lawfully justify seeking a different ruling from the previous Judge or Commissioner.
