Prosecuting Attorney
Eric Eisinger

OPEN POSITIONS:

☑ Deputy Prosecuting Attorney I
Starting at $97,864 annually

Receiving applications until December 19th, 2025.

JOB DESCRIPTION:

Benton County is seeking qualified candidates for a Deputy Prosecuting Attorney I. Located in south-central Washington, where the Columbia, Yakima, and Snake rivers meet, the county enjoys nearly 250 sunny days each year. It offers access to mountains, wildlife areas, and parks. As the heart of Washington's wine industry, Benton County attracts conferences, sports tournaments, and festivals.

Known for its affordable living, Benton County draws some of the nation's brightest minds, with the Hanford Reservation contributing to a high concentration of doctoral degree holders. Just a short drive from Seattle and Portland, it offers a high quality of life, brief commutes, and city amenities for its 215,000 residents. Benton County is an ideal place to advance your career and enjoy life.

OUR VALUES:

- SERVICE - We effectively meet the needs of our clients, constituents and crime victims by listening to their needs, being knowledgeable, working conscientiously, and being responsive.
- INTEGRITY - We express candor with victims, witnesses, clients, opposing counsel, the court and one another even when difficult.
- TEAMWORK - We work collaboratively to accomplish the best outcome by seeking and valuing the input of others, communicating in a considerate manner, and cooperating with each other to accomplish our office goals. We support each other by helping one another and sharing the workload.
